

GONE FISHIN'

Feeling lucky? Ice fishing on Lake Sils might require patience, but the rewards are well worth it – with a Badrutt's Palace chef on standby to prepare your catch of the day back at the hotel. First, you'll search for the perfect spot on the ice in which to drill a hole, remembering that the fish you're targeting is usually not in the lake's 80m-deep middle, but lurking at the bottom near the shore. Settling down on a chair amid the tranquil winter snowscape, you'll experience a joyous sense of suspense as you wait for a fish – ideally a lake trout – to bite. The only hard part? Selecting a wine to accompany it.
