Private Tour Of St. John's Co-Cathedral, Valletta

St. John's Co-Cathedral stands as a testament to the exquisite blend of Baroque art and architecture. Housing two masterpieces by Caravaggio, this cathedral was originally commissioned by Grand Master Jean de la Cassière in 1572 to serve as the conventual church for the Knights of St John. Designed by the accomplished Maltese military architect Gerolamo Cassar, the church is dedicated to St John the Baptist, the revered patron saint of the Order.

Beyond its historical significance, St John's Co-Cathedral remains a vital shrine and sacred place of worship to this day. The oratory within the cathedral proudly displays the largest and only signed masterpiece by Caravaggio.

Administered by the St John's Co-Cathedral Foundation, this institution is entrusted with the responsibility of preserving the religious and cultural heritage of this remarkable monument.

Mysterium Fidei Monastery, Valletta

Embark on a journey through the garden and subterranean chambers of St. Catherine's Monastery, a haven for female orphans founded in 1575, just nine years after the establishment of Valletta.

As you explore, immerse yourself in the timeless traditions of the nuns, both past and present. Discover their monastic lifestyle, deeply rooted in a harmonious blend of work and prayer, attuned to nature, and committed to sustainable living. Within these hallowed walls, the nuns undertook various tasks-working, cooking, and providing support to the community. The monastery stands witness to their eternal repose, a serene resting place for those who devoted their lives to this sacred way of life.

Even today, the complex houses three elderly nuns, connecting the present with the rich history of this community.
